

AGRICULTURE FROM THE PAST

Beatrice Beninato, Vanessa Distefano,
Lavinia Falcidia

OLIO

The first evidence of the cultivation of oil date back to 4000 BC. However, the Romans were those who divulgated its cultivation to all the Roman Emperor and used it as a way to pay taxes.

During the Middle Ages, in around 1400, Italy became the first producer of olive oil.